

2024 SUMMER READING PROGRAM

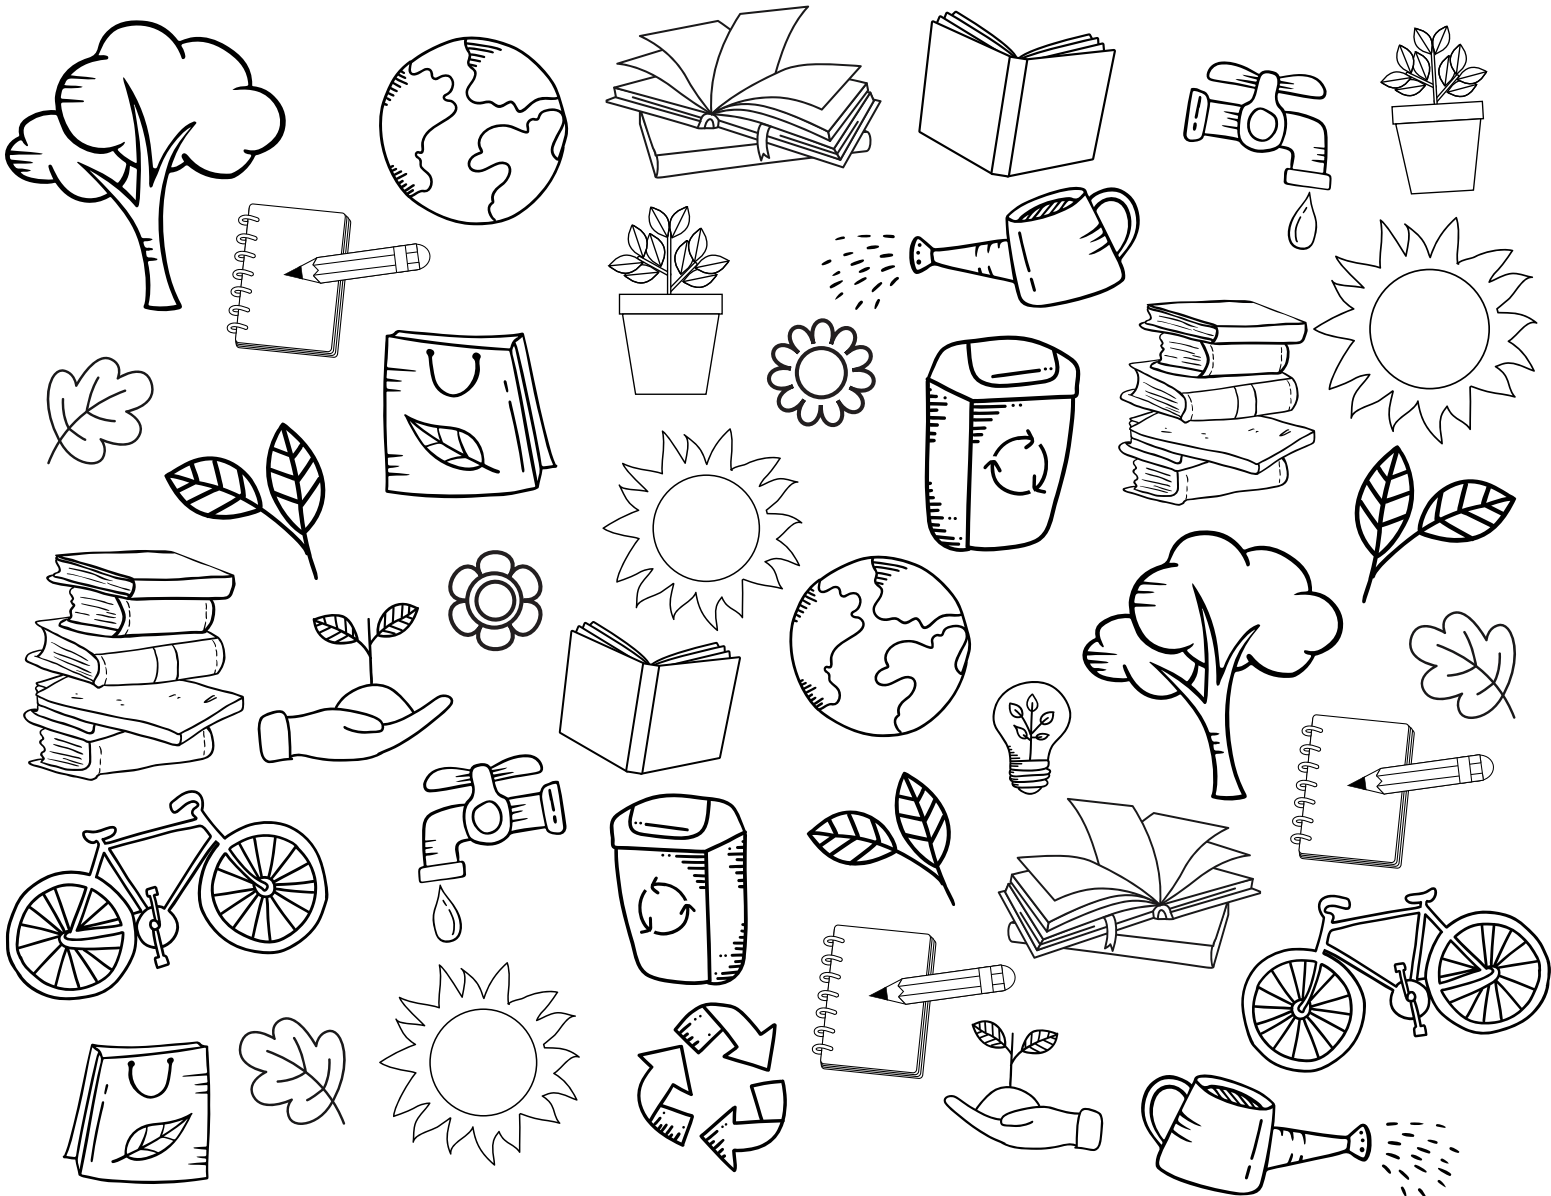

HOW IT WORKS

- Color in an object for every 15 minutes you read or are read to, or track your reading with the Beanstack app!
- When finished, return your log to the Library and earn up to two prizes.
- Complete summer activities on the back of this log or in Beanstack, then choose a prize from the treasure box.

The Summer Reading Program is generously supported by the Friends of The Urbana Free Library.

Sign up for the 150th Reading Challenge, too – all reading counts for both!

WANT A CHALLENGE?

Between May 13 and August 31, complete eight activities to choose a prize from the treasure box at the Children's Question Desk.

(May be completed once during Summer Reading.)

☆ Plant a seed from the Library's Seed Exchange.

☆ Make up a song about recycling.

☆ Put together a puzzle from the Library's floor puzzle collection.

☆ Make up a dance using a percussion instrument you can check out from the Library.

☆ Find a poem that has the word "sun" or "summer" in it.

☆ Make a flower with a petal for each thing you like about yourself. Keep the flower where you can see it every day.

☆ Visit the Farmer's Market and pick a fruit or vegetable to star in your own play.

☆ Read to a stuffed animal.

☆ Learn how to draw something new from the Library's how-to-draw books section.

☆ Read a book set outside of the United States.

☆ Sign up for the 150th Reading Challenge, too - all reading counts for both!

☆ Say hello to someone new today.

☆ Check out the Library's events calendar and come to a program during Summer Reading.

☆ Read a book about an outdoor place like a park, mountain, or ocean.
