SOLDIERS' MONUMENT SHOWS NAMES OF DECEASED VETERANS

The Soldiers' Monument at Mt. Hope cemetery now contains the names of all the deceased soldiers of the Civil War, of this community, the work of engraving being finished by Harve English, of Urbana, Wednesday. Judge Fenimore, who is a Civil War veteran has been working on this scheme for several years and is well pleased with the work as it now stands. There are twenty-one names in all, the names of the members of the cavalry being placed on the west side and the names of the members of the infantry on the south.

The engraving was done in a inch and a half block letter and greatly improves the appearance of the monument.
