Scope and Content Note:

The items in the Autograph Albums collection range in date from 1878-1907. As with typical autograph albums of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, the albums in this collection were used by students and business professionals to collect signatures, short poems, and “remember me” verses from classmates and colleagues. The Autograph Albums collection consists of thirteen albums from twelve individuals. Each album belonged to a resident of Champaign County. These albums were selected from a number of special collections located at the Champaign County Historical Archives of the Urbana Free Library.

Biographical Notes:

Minnie Woodruff Hubbard Lindley, ca 1878-1882: Minnie Woodruff Hubbard was born March 13, 1858 in Urbana, Illinois. Her parents were Urbana pioneers Thomas S. Hubbard and Jane E. Woodruff. Her father, Thomas Hubbard, worked as a hardware manufacturer and as a private banker in Urbana. Minnie Hubbard and Dr. Austin M. Lindley (1856-1932) were married on November 17, 1886. Dr. Lindley became a prominent physician and surgeon in the city of Urbana. In 1895, the couple commissioned architect Rudolph Zerse to build the Lindley House located at 312 West Green Street. The Lindleys had no children, but raised Minnie Lindley’s niece, Ida, who later inherited the Lindley House. The Lindley family was active in the community and Minnie Lindley was an active worker for the First Presbyterian Church of Urbana. Minnie Hubbard Lindley died at her home on May 15, 1935 at the age of 77.
